

International Affairs

The Office of International Affairs is charged with implementing the administrative and advising components of the UO's international goals. Led by the Vice Provost for International Affairs, the office comprises International Student and Scholar Services, Study Abroad Programs, the Mills International Center, and International Advancement and Alumni Relations. The Vice Provost also oversees the operations of AHA International, a study abroad provider that merged with the University of Oregon in June 2003. AHA International provides international academic opportunities in 13 countries.
